

Supporting Children with Diabetes and Long Term Conditions in Schools

The Beardmore Hotel and Conference Centre, Clydebank
Thursday 16 September 2010

The symposium will explore how children can best be supported to manage their condition in schools, including:

- The challenges faced by parents, teachers and children with diabetes
- Why helping children to self manage their condition is vital to future health their future
- The different models of care that have been developed across Scotland
- How education and health care professionals can work together
- The lessons for Education Authorities and diabetes services

Workshops from:

- NHS Tayside
Schools and Health Working Together
- Enquire – <http://www.enquire.org.uk/>
Sensitivity, joined up thinking and common sense - how the ASL Act can help
- Fife Council
Diabetes - development of policy into practice
- Equity in Education www.equityineducation.org
What is Important – Seeing the Whole Person
- Nottinghamshire County Council
Supporting the administration of insulin in schools in Nottinghamshire
- University of York and Leeds' Teaching Hospitals
Wrestling or Dancing? The Leeds experience of managing diabetes in schools

Speakers to include:

- Scottish Government Learning Directorate
- Jane-Claire Judson, Director of Diabetes UK Scotland
- Professor Donald Pearson, Lead Clinician for diabetes in Scotland
- Valerie Ramsay, Paediatric Diabetes Specialist Nurse, NHS Tayside
- Parent of child with Type 1 diabetes, Francis Gordon,
- Dr Ken Robertson, consultant Paediatrician, NHS Glasgow

The symposium will be of interest to Education Authorities, NHS Boards, education staff, school nurses, diabetes paediatricians, paediatric diabetes specialist nurses.

There is NO DELEGATE FEE for attending this meeting

Delegate registration is available at

<https://www.hfevents.co.uk/DiabetesInSchools2010>

Closing date for all registrations is Monday 6th September 2010

Conference arrangements will be managed by

Henri Forman Event Management

T: 0131 555 5833

e: DiabetesInSchools2010@hfeventmanagement.co.uk

w: www.hfeventmanagement.co.uk

Committed to Quality

Company Registered in Scotland SC 315055

